MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF, EE-I

SUBJECT: EE-I Daily Progress Report, Monday, 3 December 1951

1. BGFIEND. [ ] has advised us that 166 guests, including 17 press representatives, attended the Albanian reception held on Albanian Independence Day, the 28th of November, in Rome. The first issue of the NCFA monthly news bulletin, designed to increase the prestige of the Committee and provide news from inside Albania, was handed out at the Rome reception.

[ ] advises it was highly praised by press representatives present. Cables from the National Committee to Acheson and Eden were sent and have both been answered. The exchange of greetings will be used by all NCFA propaganda media. The special RFE programs that were broadcast commemorating Independence Day were completely jammed and steps are being taken to have them re-broadcast.

2. JBEDICT. Departure today by air for [ ] and [ ] where they will serve as supply assistants.

3. BGCONVOY. No report.

4. QKBROIL. No report.
